ARTICLE 3 INVOICE, PAYMENT DATES, MINIMUM AREAS

As mentioned on the Application form for Participation

ARTICLE 4 RENTAL RULES

4.1 RENTAL AGREEMENT

Leasing the exhibition stand with or without a standardised layout is carried out following the submission of a completed participation application. The leasing agreement between the exhibitor and TIF-HELEXPO is valid as long as TIF-HELEXPO has sent the acceptance letter to the exhibitor. This letter is binding for both parties, even if it deviates from the participation application details, except if the exhibitor objects to this in writing within 2 weeks from the date the confirmation was received. Similarly, the exhibitor will not have the right to appeal if the stand is allocated in a different pavilion from the one requested or if special requirements or conditions are not met.

4.2 ELIGIBILITY

In the Exhibition are presented and are for sale only products of the publishing companies who participate autonomously or as co-exhibitors.

Those publishers-exhibitors who have also the status of the wholesaler or retailer are entitled to dispose and exhibit books which are the exclusive owners of the copyrights for the Greek language and of which they have proven to own exclusivity rights.

Disposal – sale of exhibits shall be according to existing legislation, in particular as defined to the Law 2557 / 1997, as in force today.

Products of the same type may be exclusively exhibited at one and the same pavilion. If an exhibitor has leased different exhibition stands, he/she must make sure that similar products are not being exhibited at more than one of them.

TIF-HELEXPO retains the inalienable right to select exhibitors based on the compatibility of their product range with product categories included at the exhibition.

Products that are incompatible with exhibition product categories will not be exhibited, unless they are found to be absolutely necessary to the presentation or operation of an exhibit.

4.3. CONCESSION – ALLOCATION OF STANDS

4.3.1. TIF-HELEXPO, at its discretion, and according to exhibit categories, determines the position and area of the exhibition stand provided depending on its stand disposal schedule.

4.3.2. TIF-HELEXPO, at its discretion, may provide the exhibitor with the exhibition stand requested or one covering a larger or smaller area, depending on the needs and conditions at any given time, as well as the type of exhibition stand. If a smaller or larger stand than the one requested is provided, a corresponding decrease or increase in rental cost ensues.

4.3.3. TIF-HELEXPO, at its discretion, is within its rights to re-organize exhibition stands, without giving the exhibitor a right of compensation due to said re-organization.

4.3.4. If, for any reason, the stand requested is not provided to the interested party, then the exhibitor's Participation Application is considered to have been irrevocably rejected by TIF-HELEXPO and the amounts paid as a deposit and for promotional rights are returned without any further proceedings. The rejection of the Participation Application does not give the interested party the right to any compensation from TIF-HELEXPO. After the final allocation of exhibition stands, TIF-HELEXPO informs the interested party in writing about the stand provided, as regards to its location and the area it covers. Exhibitors are urged to visit, within 15 days from receiving the notification, the stand provided on site, so that he/she can form a personal opinion before launching on the setup of the stand.

4.4 USE OF EXHIBITION STANDS, FORBIDDANCE OF RETAIL SALE, PIRACY

4.4.1. Exhibits may be on display only at the rented stand. They must be exhibited in such a manner as not to interfere with neighbouring exhibition stands visually or because of noise and obstruction of exhibition stands or corridors must be avoided. In cases of non-compliance, HELEXPO may, at its discretion, ban exhibits that interfere or obstruct. If the exhibitor does not comply HELEXPO has the right to remove said exhibits and evict the exhibitor from the stand without any liability.

4.4.2. Exhibition stands must include exhibits and be staffed for the duration of the exhibition opening hours. Exhibits must be new products, unless they are being used as supplements to other exhibits or for explanatory purposes.

4.4.3. Only products listed in the participation application may be exhibited. TIF-HELEXPO has the right to remove exhibits that do not comply with exhibition product categories or that deviate from the principles of exhibition competitiveness or violate the exhibition schedule or if proven that said exhibits violate third party intellectual rights /copyright.

4.4.4. If a court finds an exhibitor guilty of third party intellectual rights/ copyright violation, TIF-HELEXPO is entitled to forbidding the exhibitor from participating in current or future exhibition events and the exhibitor shall have no right of compensation for any reason whatsoever.

4.4.5. Exhibit price information may not be posted.

4.4.6. Book retail sales are permitted according to K1-3508/29.12.2011 Ministerial Decision.

4.4.7. Exhibitors are allowed to carry out market research only within the stand they have leased.

4.4.8. The participation of religious and political organisations, institutions, associations and sects, that aim in the promotion and projection of ideas and their action, as well as in the attraction of visitors aiming at their integration in them, at the exhibitions is forbidden.

4.5. CO-EXHIBITORS, INDIRECT EXHIBITORS, GROUP PARTICIPATION, OTHER PARTICIPANTS.

4.5.1. It is possible for various companies to share one exhibition stand on the condition that the main exhibitor has listed all said companies in the co-exhibitor participation application and after the application in question has been approved by TIF-HELEXPO.

4.5.2. Every company with its own staff and exhibits, that uses an exhibition stand leased from another exhibitor or organizer, must be listed as a co-exhibitor.

4.5.3. The cost of renting a stand for the participation of co-exhibitors is always invoiced in the name of the main exhibitor, except for the co-exhibitor's participation rights.

4.5.4. Co-exhibitors must also observe the Participation Regulations as these are applied. The main exhibitor is in charge of informing co-exhibitors about current and possible additional regulations and of securing the acceptance of potential obligations that might arise towards TIF-HELEXPO. TIF-HELEXPO reserves the right to communicate with co-exhibitors directly or through an authorized third party.

4.5.5. If an exhibitor does not provide or provides incomplete or incorrect information on the co-exhibitor participation application, TIF-HELEXPO will use its own judgment in calculating and charging the participation fees it considers necessary, had the co-exhibitor participation application been submitted correctly, and such fees must be paid in full by the exhibitor and co-exhibitors.

4.5.6. Indirect exhibitors are Companies the products/services of which are represented by an exhibitor and the trade names of the company and/or of their products/services appear at the exhibition stand. Indirect exhibitors must obligatorily be declared by completing the relevant application for listing an indirect exhibitor.

4.5.7. Participation by Official foreign State

Agencies, as well as participation of Greek or International representatives of production companies from Greece or abroad must be accompanied by the indirect exhibitor listing application for each of the companies represented.

4.5.8. It is possible for collective non-profit bodies (unions, associations, chambers of commerce, etc.) representing companies, to organize a group participation for their members. For a participation to be considered as group participation it must cover a minimum of 135 m2 of net exhibition stand area and it must include 15 exhibitors. Companies participating in the group participation are considered co-exhibitors and are charged the appropriate fee.

4.5.9. Greek and International production company representatives from Greece and abroad may exhibit their products at the exhibition at the same time with all other authorized representatives as long as the production company in question has issued them with a written permission. If this is not the case, only representatives authorized by the production company are accepted.

4.5.10. Exhibitors may assign a third party to organize their participation in the exhibition. This may be carried out with a written statement appointing a representative and authorizing them in writing to represent the exhibitor and potential co-exhibitors in all issues related to the exhibition.

4.6. MANNER OF PAYMENT

Along with the Participation Application, whether it is submitted before or after the deadline, the interested party pays TIF-HELEXPO an amount for the use of its stand area and exhibitor promotion rights, as follows:

In cash

By the receipt of the PROFORMA INVOICE, the full amount due is paid at the cashier's desk or deposited to TIF-HELEXPO S.A.'s bank account prior to the opening of the exhibition.

Particularly for the participation of international businesses, bodies, organizations, etc. the full amount shall be paid in advance.

4.7. PROMOTION RIGHTS

The use of promotion rights is obligatory for exhibitors and co-exhibitors. The promotion right fee is paid to TIF-HELEXPO, since TIF-HELEXPO provides exhibitors and co-exhibitors with a range of services (promotional, advertising, entry into the Exhibitors' Catalogue, INTERNET posting,). The right for exhibitor promotion is paid by all, regardless of whether their company name is listed in the official Exhibitors' Catalogue or not.

4.8. RETURN OF DEPOSIT AND PROMOTION RIGHT FEE

If TIF-HELEXPO does not have available space this is made known to the interested party in writing and the amounts paid (deposit and promotion right fee) are returned to the payees without further ado.

4.9 PARTICIPATION ACCEPTANCE AND REJECTION

4.9.1. Every Participation Application submitted is accepted or rejected. If an Application received within the deadline is not accepted, an appropriate notification document is sent to the interested party.

4.9.2. Participation Applications submitted by TIF-HELEXPO debtors are accepted only once outstanding debts have been settled.

4.9.3. Participation Applications that contain terms, exemptions or limitations are rejected.

4.9.4. If the Participation Application is rejected, the rejection is irrevocable and TIF-HELEXPO S.A. is obliged to return the deposit and promotion right fee to the interested party without any further processing.

4.10 TIF-HELEXPO S.A. RIGHTS

TIF-HELEXPO reserves the right to postpone or temporarily shut down, partially or completely, or to cancel in its entirety the scheduled exhibition event for a justified reason, such as labour disputes or events beyond its control.

TIF-HELEXPO will use fair judgment for the cancellation of an exhibition that seems to be unprofitable while taking into account exhibitors' interests. Mutual obligations of contributing parties are made null in the case of such a cancellation. No claim to compensation or damages may be made due to said cancellation or postponement, while TIF-HELEXPO will return any payments it has received from exhibitors for services that have not been provided until that point in time.

In the case of a full or partial postponement of the trade exhibition, the agreement will be considered valid for the event's new dates and duration, unless the exhibitor files an objection in writing within a period of two weeks from his/her notification about the change. The exhibitor will not have the right to decrease the rental amount agreed on.

4.11 PARTICIPATION CANCELLATION

4.11.1. TIF-HELEXPO may, at its discretion, accept a request in writing submitted by an exhibitor for partial or full cancellation of his/her participation in the exhibition, following the submittal of his/her participation application. However, the exhibitor remains responsible for the payment of the promotional right fee and the standing cancellation fee. The amount to be paid is shown in the charges' table below, which is based on the following data:

- The time at which TIF-HELEXPO received the written notification from the exhibitor regarding the exhibition participation cancellation.

- The foreseen participation compensation that would be owed for the correspondingly committed or leased exhibition stand, based on the basic rent, additional charges for the open sides of the exhibition stand and/or standardised structure, as stipulated in Article 3 of these Regulations.

TIME OF CANCELLATION OF THE EXHIBITOR'S PARTICIPATION	FEES CHARGED
30-1 calendar day before the Fair opening date	The registration fee and the whole of the participation charge are withheld
60-31 calendar days before the Fair opening date	The registration fee and down payment are withheld
61+ calendar days before the Fair opening date	The registration fee is withheld

The charges above stand regardless of whether the exhibitor's stand is conceded to another exhibitor, and the amount payable according to the charges above becomes due immediately.

4.11.2. TIF-HELEXPO, without depriving itself of the right for further claims, will have the right to cancel or terminate the leasing agreement or multiannual leasing agreement or other service agreements, without any further notification, if the exhibitor is unable even after an appropriate grace period has elapsed, to meet his contractual obligations and the obligations stipulated in the Participation Regulations or any possible Additional Terms of Participation.

4.11.3. TIF-HELEXPO will similarly have the right to terminate the agreement without notification if the exhibitor no longer meets the requirements of the Participation Application, especially if the exhibitor has changed the object of his/her activity and if the products/services to be exhibited are no longer compatible with the product/service categories of the exhibition. This will also be the case when payment is pending or the exhibitor's assets are included in a statement of bankruptcy or similar legal proceedings in their country of residence or if the exhibitor's company is in the process of liquidation.

4.11.4. If the leasing agreement for an exhibition stand has been terminated for one or more of the reasons stated in the previous paragraph, TIF-HELEXPO has the right to proceed to charge a cancellation fee. The amount of this fee will be determined according to current regulations regarding exhibitor participation cancellations and depends on the time at which TIF-HELEXPO receives written notification regarding the events justifying the termination of said agreement.

4.12. COLLECTION – STAND AREA MEASUREMENT - OPENING

4.12.1. If the Exhibitor asks for a change of venue from Type 2 (standardised structure and floor trace) to a Type 1 (floor trace without structure) within a time period shorter than 5 days prior to the opening of the exhibition event, she/he must pay the venue use compensation and shall be charged with the amount mentioned in the standing Service and Equipment Provision Document.

4.12.2. When receiving his/her stand the exhibitor shall present TIF-HELEXPO the documentation and layout plan informing him/her that "he was accepted as an exhibitor and has received the stand". If during stand delivery the exhibitor is not present but one of his employees or representatives is, then that party (the employee or representative) must have with them written authorization from the exhibitor through which to prove the right to receive the stand. Any minor differences in stand dimensions in relation to the initial stand plan sent to the exhibitor will be resolved on the spot, upon delivery or during the operation of the exhibition. If there is a technical fault or an emergency, due to the organizer, the exhibitor will be informed accordingly. Details on the delivery and acceptance of stands (opening hours' schedule) will be provided by the appropriate TIF-HELEXPO bureau and the exhibitor is obliged to comply with TIF-HELEXPO's written instructions.

4.12.3. Exhibition stands not received by the exhibitor by the opening of the Exhibition are considered free and TIF-HELEXPO may concede them to another exhibitor. Non-collection of the stand by the exhibitor is considered a cancellation and the regulations of Article 4.11 are applied in regard to it.

4.12.4. The final measurement of the exhibiting stand area accepted and occupied by the exhibitor is carried out by TIF-HELEXPO on the spot and during operation. The exhibitor is informed immediately and in writing through an invoice regarding the results of the final measurements and if she/he disagrees they must submit their disagreement in writing to TIF-HELEXPO the following day. After this deadline stand measurements are considered final and are unconditionally accepted by the exhibitor. If the exhibitor submits in writing his/her disagreement within the foreseen deadline, then a new measurement of the area in question is carried out, in the presence of the exhibitor. The result of this measurement is final and irrevocable for the exhibitor.

ARTICLE 5: ENTRANCE CARDS

For the entrance of the personnel staffing the exhibition stand within Exhibition Facilities an exhibitor entrance card is required. The number of cards delivered to an exhibitor depends on the confirmed area of the exhibition stand. The number provided is 1 entrance card per 3 square meters of exhibition area. If the exhibitor requires a higher number of entrance cards than those she/he is entitled to, they will be charged an extra amount of 10.00€/card.

An exhibitor's entrance cards are sent by mail at least two weeks prior to the exhibition, to ensure that exhibitors receive them in good time. Apart from the date mentioned above, entrance cards are distributed by the exhibition Secretariat at the facilities of Thessaloniki International Exhibition Centre.

Each card lists the Exhibitor's Company name and the given name and surname of the card holder. The card is strictly for personal use only and:

- If lost, it will not be replaced.
- If asked, the holder must also present her/his identity card.
- If found in the possession of a third party, it will be confiscated.

ARTICLE 6 EXHIBITION PREPARATION – STAND CONSTRUCTION – DECORATIVE SIGNS / MARKINGS

6.1. The construction of the exhibition stand is obligatory and the cost exclusively burdens the exhibitor, whether carried out through TIF-HELEXPO (floor trace with a standardized structure – Type 2) or carried out by the exhibitor him/herself (floor trace – Type 1).

For floor trace exhibition stands (Type 1), accepting the stand requires the submittal of a formal statement on the sound and safe operation of construction works and electrical installations, accompanied by an Electrical Installation Plan and an Electrical Permit Copy from the relevant Ministry.

6.2. The approval of these plans is carried out by competent TIF-HELEXPO Services under the condition that the plans are submitted within the deadline and well in advance of the exhibitor's installation at the stand. Non-approval of the plans by competent TIF-HELEXPO services obliges the exhibitor to adapt or amend the points highlighted by said TIF-HELEXPO services.

6.3. The perimeter open sides of exhibition stands (within pavilions or outdoors) must be aesthetically pleasing on both sides. This decision of TIF-HELEXPO is obligatory for all exhibitors. Exhibitors are responsible for wear and tear or loss of decorative items.

6.4. In such a case as when an exhibitor wishes to construct a two-storey exhibition stand at a pavilion within which TIF-HELEXPO allows such construction, apart from what is stipulated in Article 6.1, the exhibitor in question shall also be required to additionally submit for approval to the appropriate TIF-HELEXPO Services: a full study (architectural, statics, electrical engineering) for the construction of a two-storey exhibition stand – which will necessarily be prefabricated, consisting of metal elements, etc. – signed by Engineers who are legally entitled to signing said study. Furthermore, also required are Formal Statements regarding the Assignment – Undertaking of the study in question and the Supervision of construction works at the exhibition stand (in City Planning "type" documentation), signed by the exhibitor and the Engineers, respectively.

6.5. As far as construction on floor traces (Type 1) is concerned, the exhibitor is fully responsible throughout the construction and operation of the exhibition for the application of safety measures required. The exhibitor bears all penal and civil responsibility for any accident or malfunction, that may occur to himself, his staff or any third parties, due to actions directly or indirectly related to the construction of the exhibition stand and during the period of time from the commencement of such construction until full dismantling has been completed. Furthermore, she/he bears exclusive responsibility for any machinery operating or on display at the exhibition stand.

6.6. As far as the construction on floor traces with a standardized structure (Type 2, 3 and 4) is concerned, after the delivery of the construction to the exhibitor, any structural change that may decrease applicable safety measures is forbidden. In such a case, the exhibitor undertakes exclusive penal and civil responsibility for any accident or malfunction that may occur to her/himself, her/his staff or third parties, due to actions directly or indirectly related to the reconstruction of the exhibition stand and during the period from the delivery of the construction until it has been completely dismantled.

6.7. When the exhibitor's decorative signs-markings are more than 2.5 meters high, it is required that a construction plan should be submitted to the appropriate TIF-HELEXPO Services for approval. If this is not the case, if the decorative sign-marking is interfering with other exhibitors sharing exhibition stand boundaries, there will be an immediate intervention by TIF-HELEXPO Services, which may proceed to even remove the offending sign-marking, if this is deemed necessary. The cost of the dismantling will be borne by the exhibitor.

6.8. It is strictly forbidden to connect different exhibition stands (even if they are being used by the same exhibitor) with decorative signs-markings or flooring or any other structural element, when they are separated by a public aisle.

6.9. Entrance to Exhibition Facilities is free of charge to Exhibitors' crews during preparations and dismantling of exhibition stands; however, TIF-HELEXPO security personnel have the right to check the identity of individuals entering its premises. Individuals unable to provide proof of their participation in the preparation or dismantling works of exhibition stands may be asked to leave the premises.

ARTICLE 7 STAND RETURN – DEPARTURE

7.1. Every exhibitor is required, after the end of the Exhibition Event, to return to TIF-HELEXPO, within the time foreseen in Article 2 of these Regulations, her/his exhibition stand in the same condition they received it.

7.2. After the end of the exhibition, exhibitors must remove anything they had placed or constructed at the stand they were using (general decorations) from TIF-HELEXPO premises.

7.3. After this deadline, the items in the exhibition stand are considered rubbish and are removed. TIF-HELEXPO has full and irrevocable authorization from the exhibitor, who overlooked this obligation, to undertake all necessary actions to clear all items from the exhibition stand, but the cost and responsibility still lie with the exhibitor, while the objects and materials come into the possession of TIF-HELEXPO and no compensation is due to the exhibitor.

7.4. The removal of exhibits, furniture, utensils, decorations, etc. from TIF-HELEXPO grounds, after the completion of the Exhibition Event, is only allowed after the exhibitor has settled any payment due for the use of facilities or any other debt to TIF-HELEXPO, at which time they receive the relevant exit permit from the Accounting Department.

ARTICLE 8 VISITORS' ENTRANCE TO EVENT GROUNDS

The entrance in TIF-HELEXPO fairgrounds during the Exhibition hours is free of charge.

ARTICLE 9. VEHICLE ENTRANCE AND TRAFFIC

9.1. Exhibitors' vehicle entrance: During the days on which the exhibition is operating, vehicles are not allowed inside TIF-HELEXPO grounds except within the specially designated parking area which is notified to exhibitors by competent TIF-HELEXPO services.

9.2. Rules and regulations regarding vehicle traffic inside the exhibition premises must be strictly followed in order to ensure smooth traffic circulation. In any case, all Traffic Rules and Regulations are in effect inside the Exhibition Center, and the maximum speed allowed may not exceed 20 km/hour.

9.3. Vehicles, trailers, containers or obstacles of any kind that are illegally parked on exhibition grounds, shall be towed away by TIF-HELEXPO and any related costs shall be borne by the owner/driver.

ARTICLE 10 ADVERTISING

10.1. Exhibitors are required to advertise exclusively exhibits of the houses included in their Participation Application and only within their exhibition stand.

10.2. Advertising may be carried out with flyers or samples to be handed out to visitors free of charge.

10.3. Advertisements that are not compatible with fair practice or are of a political character are not allowed. Furthermore, in no way is the use of the logo of TIF-HELEXPO S.A. or of the exhibition allowed, without TIF-HELEXPO's previous written consent.

10.4. Photographing or video-recording of exhibition stands by third parties is not allowed without prior approval by the exhibitor and TIF-HELEXPO.

10.5. The distribution of flyers/advertising material is not allowed at any other point apart from an exhibitor's exhibition stand, unless special permission by TIF-HELEXPO has been secured.

10.6. The promotion of exhibitors within the Exhibition Center during the Exhibition Event may be carried out in various ways described in detail in the Marketing Manual, which is available at www.helexpo.gr

ARTICLE 11 EXHIBITORS' CATALOGUE

11.1. TIF-HELEXPO issues and publishes the Exhibitors' Catalogue at its discretion.

11.2. Only TIF-HELEXPO and individuals or businesses following TIF-HELEXPO's instructions may publish the Exhibitors' Catalogue or any other related document, making use of the title of TIF-HELEXPO.

ARTICLE 12 ADVERTISING IN THE EXHIBITORS' CATALOGUE

12.1. Every exhibitor is entitled to requesting a paid advertisement in the Catalogue; fees are charged according to the pricelist valid at any given time.

12.2. The listing is secured after the interested party has submitted a completed and signed Advertisement Application Form to TIF-HELEXPO.

12.3. The right for an advertisement listing in the Catalogue is also extended to non-exhibitors at TIF-HELEXPO under the same terms.

ARTICLE 13 SECURITY SERVICES

The Security provided is for the grounds in general and not for the individual exhibits, for which there is Special paid Security available, exclusively provided through the Security Company authorized by TIF-HELEXPO. The staff of the Security Company is in charge of the smooth operation of the exhibition, maintaining order and safety, as well as enforcing applicable operation and safety regulations.

ARTICLE 14 EMERGENCY EXITS AND SAFETY MEASURES

In order to ensure that emergency service vehicles have clear access to the premises, the following must always be kept clear:

Emergency exits.

Aisles and areas preserved for security services.

Access gates for fire department and rescue service vehicles.

Vehicle approach exits on aisles.

Fire Department Networks (fire extinguishing hub and hosing).

All doors at fire exits must be kept clear so that they may open fully and easily from the inside. Access to exits and the emergency exits must be unobstructed. It is forbidden to cover exit direction signs. TIF-HELEXPO reserves the right to remove any vehicle or object, at the expense of its owner, if it is interfering with or obstructing access to emergency exits, areas intended for security services or aisles.

ARTICLE 15 EXHIBITORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

15.1. An exhibitor is expected to repair any damages, in such situations as when TIF-HELEXPO would be held responsible to third parties.

15.2. TIF-HELEXPO is not liable for actual faults or shortages, concerning features agreed upon for any venues it leases for various purposes (including restaurants, canteens, refreshment stands, etc.). Therefore, it is not liable for wear and tear, partial or total malfunctions or weathering of exhibits, which might occur due to such faults or shortages.

15.3. TIF-HELEXPO is not responsible for losses, faults or wear and tear (partial or total) or damage to exhibits, decoration materials or other items the exhibitor or lease holder in general brought to the exhibiting or storage premises, whether these events happen during, before or after the Exhibition Event.

15.4. Outstanding monetary or other debts to TIF-HELEXPO, due to participation (exhibition stands, advertising, telephone-lines, water-supply, etc.) accrue legal interest after the end of the exhibition event.

15.5. The exhibitor is the only party liable for any accident that may occur during demonstrations of machines - tools, while TIF-HELEXPO bears no responsibility towards the injured party. If TIF-HELEXPO is held responsible vis-a-vis a third party, the exhibitor is obliged to reimburse TIF-HELEXPO for any damages the latter undertook.

15.6. The exhibitor is responsible for any wear and tear or damage caused by himself/herself or his/her crew to all types of facilities, buildings, floors, grass areas, roads and other assets on TIF-HELEXPO grounds. In particular, regarding outdoor exhibition venues, apart from all of the above, it is also strictly forbidden to nail structures onto the road surface. Damage to the above carries monetary compensation to be determined by the Support Department following cost accounting of damages caused and violations committed.

ARTICLE 16 MEDICAL SERVICES

Throughout the operation of exhibitions TIF-HELEXPO provides its exhibitors with first aid medical assistance at the specially equipped infirmary on TIF-HELEXPO grounds.

ARTICLE 17 GENERAL PROHIBITIONS

17.1. Exhibitors are prohibited from making any changes in the use of premises or arbitrarily taking over any areas apart from the stand area conceded to them.

17.2. Subletting the stand (partially or in total) or free concession of the stand to third parties by the exhibitor is prohibited.

17.3. It is prohibited to bring onto TIF-HELEXPO grounds flammable or explosive materials or any war equipment or to expose such items.

17.4. It is prohibited to light a fire. Exhibitors must take fire protection measures within exhibition stands.

17.5. It is prohibited to cause interference with audio or audiovisual systems. TIF-HELEXPO has the right, if an exhibitor continues to interfere through the use of sound, to immediately stop the operation of the system, whatever other penalties might also be imposed.

17.6. It is prohibited to smoke in all covered premises, apart from special smoking areas.

17.7. It is forbidden for animals to be brought onto the exhibition grounds.

17.8. Storing in the aisles and exhibition facilities or littering them is prohibited.

17.9. It is prohibited to use forklifts or cranes in exhibition premises without prior authorization.

17.10. It is prohibited to transmit or receive (radio, television, telecommunications equipment) on exhibition grounds without prior written permission from TIF-HELEXPO.

17.11. Anyone interested in carrying out television, video or new media productions or photographing exhibition premises, must first secure written consent from any exhibitor involved. The creation of any television, video or new media productions for commercial purposes is subject to prior approval from TIF-HELEXPO.

ARTICLE 18 BRINGING EXHIBITS ONTO THE PREMISES – TRANSPORT OF EXHIBITS

18.1. Exhibits coming from Greece or duty-free items from abroad must be accompanied by a valid bill of goods.

18.2. Exhibits originating abroad may be brought onto TIF-HELEXPO grounds in compliance with whatever laws might be in force regarding their transportation.

ARTICLE 19 INSPECTION OF REGULAR OPERATION

19.1. TIF-HELEXPO and its services are the only ones allowed to inspect and ascertain the proper operation of the Exhibition event, compliance with the rules of this Regulation, as well as observance of various agreements with exhibitors and lease holders.

19.2. If a TIF-HELEXPO exhibitor or lease holder violates one of the rules of these regulations, she/he immediately loses the right to participate in the exhibition event, while all her/his debts to TIF-HELEXPO are retained and collected by the latter. The exhibit stand is immediately sealed by TIF-HELEXPO without any liability for damages to the transgressor. TIF-HELEXPO may, at its discretion, decide to impose a monetary fine (penal clause) on the transgressing exhibitor or on third parties; this fine may be as high as tenfold the amount of rent agreed on. Besides, TIF-HELEXPO reserves the right to ban exhibitors who habitually violate these rules from future participation.

19.3. TIF-HELEXPO has the right to amend or supplement these Regulations, in regard to exhibition events it organizes or it may organize in the future, while at the same time informing interested parties, as well as adjusting its various price lists accordingly.

19.4. Disputes between TIF-HELEXPO and any third party are settled by the competent courts of Thessaloniki.
